Santa Clara County REALTORS® Foundation Donates More Than $14,000 to Charitable Causes

SAN JOSE, Calif., Dec. 7, 2011 – The Santa Clara County REALTORS® Foundation raised and donated more than $14,000 in cash and toys to an elementary school and an adoptive children’s organization this holiday season. The foundation is the charitable arm of the Santa Clara County Association of REALTORS® (SCCAOR).

Katherine R. Smith Elementary School in San Jose received $5,000 in cash, and the Santa Clara County Foster & Adoptive Parent Association $9,300 in cash and toys. The foundation raised the money and toys through a Pumpkin Auction and a toy drive. In addition, the foundation is conducting a food drive for the Second Harvest Food Bank.

“We thank our REALTOR® and Affiliate members for their generosity,” said Mike Sibilias, President of the Santa Clara County Association of REALTORS®. “They are committed to helping those in need. They embody real estate professionals’ wonderful spirit of giving and serving.”

SCCAOR President Mike Sibilias can be reached for comments at msibilias@kwsv.net or 408.540.1711.
