Members of Santa Clara County Association of REALTORS® to Meet with Legislators at State Capitol

SAN JOSE, Calif., May 3, 2011 – Members of the Santa Clara County Association of REALTORS® will join REALTORS® from across California to meet with legislators at the state Capitol on May 4 to discuss issues affecting the real estate industry.

Legislative Day is an annual event organized by the California Association of REALTORS®. The day's activities include a morning brief by key legislators, office visits of assemblymembers and senators, and a forum on hot policy, legal and regulatory issues. SCCAOR members will meet with legislators who represent their districts.

"Our members take time out of their busy schedule to participate in Legislative Day," said Mike Sibilia, President of the Santa Clara County Association. "They provide legislators first-hand information on the housing market, speak for consumers, and push for policy or legislation that stimulates and strengthens our economy. We are proud of their passion and commitment."

SCCAOR President Mike Sibilia can be reached for comments at msibilia@kwsv.net or 408.540.1711.
