

DISCIPLINARY COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

1. Any person, whether or not a member, participant or subscriber, may file a complaint against a member alleging a violation of the current NAR Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. The Association can only accept complaints that fall within the authority and jurisdiction of the Association.
2. The Complaint must be in writing, signed by the complainant and state the facts upon which the complaint is based. A complaint meeting all filing requirements must be legible and submitted on a Santa Clara County Association of REALTORS® (SCCAOR) Disciplinary Complaint Form (D-1) and filed within one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days after the facts constituting the wrongful conduct could have been known in the exercise of reasonable diligence. The disciplinary complaint must allege specific Article(s) from the current NAR Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice and must be accompanied by an attached statement, marked Exhibit 1, which states the facts supporting the allegations. Copies of contracts, agreements and other documents must be included. SCCAOR does not independently investigate complaints.
3. Complaints are referred to the Grievance Committee. The committee may: 1) designate the complaint for a Citation; 2) dismiss the complaint; 3) amend the complaint by deleting or adding Article(s) of the current NAR Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice or 4) refer the complaint to a Professional Standards disciplinary hearing as presented. The Grievance Committee initially considers allegations of unethical conduct. The Grievance Committee does not determine guilt or innocence. In the event the Grievance Committee dismisses the entire complaint or deletes Article(s); the Complainant may request a Directors review of the Grievance Committee's decision. When the Directors review the Grievance Committee's decision, the Complainant does not have the right to be present at the Directors Review.
4. Code of Ethics violations under the Association Citation Policy shall only be from those Article(s) authorized by the SCCAOR Board of Directors. Any REALTOR® receiving a Citation may either 1) complete specified training (at the option of the Association); 2) pay the amount specified on the Citation; or 3) request a full hearing to contest the Citation.
